FROM PIAZZALE ROMA & SANTA LUCIA RAILWAY STATION

When you arrive in Venice, either at Piazzale Roma (bus terminal) or at the railway station, take the ACTV water-bus (vaporetto), line 1, to Sant'Angelo stop.

As you get off, just walk straight until a tall red-brick building, then take the first alley on the right side of the building (Ramo Narisi).

Turn the corner and keep on going until a small bridge.

At the top of it, turn left and go straight along Calle Del Pestrin until you see a courtyard on your right (Campiello Nuovo); our Hotel is just in front of you.

FROM MARCO POLO AIRPORT

Marco Polo international airport is twenty-minutes north of Venice. A regular bus connection to Piazzale Roma is provided by two different companies, the ACTV and the ATVO, but there are also taxis and water-taxis available.

ACTV (orange busses)

The orange bus n. 5 runs frequently between 4:05 a.m. and 12:10 a.m. but you can check timetable at www.actv.it - the site provides also maps and other useful information. It stops a number of times along the way, just get off at the terminal.

The ticket price is 1 euro per person. Bulky luggage will be charged.

ATVO (blue busses)

This bus can be useful in case of a bulky luggage as it won't be charged.

The ticket price is 2.70 euros per person. This blue bus can also be useful in the rush hours when commuters catch the orange busses. You will find the ATVO bus stop in between the arrival and departure areas, check the bus destination before getting on as blue busses also reach Padova and other destinations. It will take you about twenty minutes to get to Venice Piazzale Roma.

Check timetable at www.atvo.it

Anyway, the quickest way to reach us is to catch a taxi-cab from the Arrivals to Piazzale Roma and then the water-bus to Sant'Angelo.

A third way to reach us in half an hour is to get a water-taxi from the airport directly to Sant'Angelo.

You will enjoy the magic of the lagoon and the Grand Canal but it isn't inexpensive!

FROM SAN BASILIO CRUISE TERMINAL (STAZIONE MARITTIMA)

From the cruise terminal, you can catch the Alilaguna blue-line service (check the timetable at www.alilaguna.it), which starts from the cruise terminal and goes to St. Mark's square.

As you get off, you will find the ACTV water-bus stop right next to the Alilaguna stop.

Catch line 1 to Rialto bridge and get off at Sant'Angelo.

As you get off, just walk straight until a tall red-brick building, then take the first alley on the right side of the building (Ramo Narisi).

Turn the corner and keep on going until a small bridge. At the top of it, turn left and go straight along Calle Del Pestrin until you see a courtyard on your right (Campiello Nuovo); our Hotel is just in front of you.

Otherwise, ask your cruise company whether a shuttle service to Piazzale Roma is provided - all major companies usually have - then follow the directions mentioned above. If you are really looking forward to reaching us to leave your baggage and go sightseeing, then it's worth asking for a private water-taxi to take you to Sant'Angelo directly: it will be more expensive but certainly quicker!
